Pop-Rock Quartet Keeps You Humming

The Rhodes Tavern Troubadours will keep the Braddock Nights audience grooving to their infectious roots-rock music at Lake Accotink Park in Springfield, Friday, August 11, 2006 at 7:30 p.m. Named after D.C.'s first honky-tonk tavern, the band is comprised of four Washington music scene veterans who've released a total of 40 albums among them. The band will perform songs from their debut CD, On the Red Line, hailed as a "roots-rocking, pop-explosion."

Lake Accotink Park is located at 7500 Lake Accotink Park Road, Springfield.

Concerts are free and take place outdoors. Bring a picnic dinner and blankets, and sit back and enjoy the show. If there is a threat of bad weather call (703) 324-SHOW after 6 p.m. for cancellation updates.

Other Braddock Nights performances can be seen throughout the summer at Ossian Hall Park in Annandale and Royal Lake Park in the Kings Park West area.

Braddock Nights is made possible through the efforts of the Braddock District Supervisor, Friends of Braddock Nights, the Fairfax County Park Authority and the generous support of the local business community.

For more information about any of the summer series contact the Public Information Office at (703) 324-8662 or visit us online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances/>.
